Upon review of the disclosed prior art Casati et al., "eFlow: a Platform for Developing and Managing Composite e-Services", IEEE-Proceedings Academia/Industry Working Conference on 27-29 April 2000, pp. 341-348, it appears that information directly related to the patentability of the current claims may have been made available to the public through the "eFlow" technology. The specifics of the public disclosure must be analyzed in a determination of applicability under 35 U.S.C. § 102(a,b).

In response to this requirement, please provide:

- 1) All release information (such as dates, product literature and the product itself) for the "eFlow" platform that may have occurred prior to 24 July 2000;
- 2) Factual statement explaining the relationship between specifying a composite e-service and deploying the composite e-service (as recited in the claims) in the "eFlow" platform released prior to 24 July 2000; and
- 3) Factual statement explaining the operational steps involved in receiving a composite e-service to producing a working deployment for a client, target or customer (as recited in the claims) in the "eFlow" platform released prior to 24 July 2000;

4) Factual statement explaining the process of deploying the composite e-service in the “eFlow” platform (as recited in the claims) released prior to 24 July 2000; and

Additionally in response to this requirement, please provide the names of any products or services that have incorporated the claimed subject matter and/or the names of any products or services that have incorporated the “eFlow” platform. In addition to provided names, please provide dates said products and services were made available to the public.

In responding to those requirements that require copies of documents, where the document is a bound text or a single article over 50 pages, the requirement may be met by providing copies of those pages that provide the particular subject matter indicated in the requirement, or where such subject matter is not indicated, the subject matter found in applicant's disclosure.

The fee and certification requirements of 37 CFR 1.97 are waived for those documents submitted in reply to this requirement. This waiver extends only to those documents within the scope of this requirement under 37 CFR 1.105 that are included in the applicant's first complete communication responding to this requirement. Any supplemental replies subsequent to the first communication responding to this requirement and any information disclosures beyond the scope of this requirement under 37 CFR 1.105 are subject to the fee and certification requirements of 37 CFR 1.97.

Art Unit: 2193

The applicant is reminded that the reply to this requirement must be made with candor and good faith under 37 CFR 1.56.
